Former FEC Chairman Scott Thomas Selected as Compliance Counsel

Minneapolis, Minn. – Antone Melton-Meaux announced today that his campaign has hired former Federal Election Commission (FEC) Chairman, Scott Thomas, as chief compliance counsel.

Scott, who currently works at Blank Rome in Washington, DC, has more than 30 years of experience with the FEC. He was appointed for three consecutive terms by Presidents Reagan, Bush and Clinton. He was a commissioner from 1986 to 2006, and served as chair in 1987, 1993, 1999 and 2005.

“Our democracy requires fair and transparent elections, and adhering to campaign finance laws are fundamental to that process,” said Scott.

“Scott’s experience and knowledge of campaign finance, ethics and elections law are simply unmatched. We look forward to working with him to ensure we’re always on the right side of the law,” said Antone.
